Academic Code of Conduct:

Cowley College is committed to instilling in its students a high level of academic integrity. Integrity in the classroom is a definite expectation. Students who compromise the integrity of the academic process are subject to disciplinary action by the college.

A violation of academic integrity includes but is not limited to:

- Plagiarism

- Cheating
- Fabrication and Falsification
- Multiple Submission
- Misuse of Academic Materials
- Complicity in Academic Dishonesty

If a student is ever in doubt about the specific guidelines governing individual or group work with respect to a particular course or assignment, be sure to ask the instructor for clarification.

XF Grade

In accordance to the Academic Code of Conduct, an XF grade may be given to:

1. Students who are guilty of academic misconduct on tests or major assignments.
2. Students who knowingly facilitate classmates in academic misconduct on tests or major assignments (will be based upon the decision of the Appeals Committee).
3. Students who commit repeat violations of the Academic Code of Conduct on any class assignments.

The Academic Code of Conduct will be used to define academic misconduct.

If an instructor determines a student should receive an XF grade:

1. The instructor will meet with the student and follow the Academic Code of Conduct to ensure that the student has an initial opportunity to respond.
2. If the instructor still believes the student should receive an XF grade, the instructor will notify the Instructional Office and complete an XF form.
3. The student will then be notified of his/her right to appeal by the Appeals Committee, which will be scheduled as needed.
4. If the student chooses to appeal the X portion of the grade, the Appeals Committee will have the final authority.
5. The student will have the opportunity to remain in the class until the appeal process has been completed. Formal withdrawal from the class will not prevent the student from receiving a grade of XF.
6. A student may not withdraw from a class after receiving a grade of XF.
7. The decision of the Appeals Committee will be the final decision. The student, teacher, and advisor will be notified within 4 business days

To have the first XF grade removed from his/her transcript, the student must perform 20 hours of community service and successfully complete a course on academic honesty by the end of the following semester. The community service will be arranged through A.C.E.S. and will be completed at the discretion of the A.C.E.S. sponsor. The course will be for 1 credit hour at the student's expense with no financial aid or scholarship assistance. The Instructional Office may keep internal records that show the student received an XF grade that was later converted to an F after completion of the required community service and short course on academic honesty.

If a student receives an XF grade for a second time, that grade will remain on his/her transcript with no opportunity for removal. An XF grade cannot be erased from the Academic Fresh Start program.

Academic Misconduct

First Level Resolution

The original jurisdiction of any case involving academic misconduct shall be with the faculty member whose course the alleged misconduct occurred. If a faculty member suspects a student of an academic misconduct, he/she must inform the student without unnecessary delay of the alleged misconduct and provide the student the opportunity to respond before taking any action. Students suspected of academic misconduct, whether acknowledging involvement or not, shall be allowed to continue the course without prejudice pending disciplinary actions. If the faculty member takes no action within 10 days after informing the student, the allegations shall be considered dismissed.

The faculty member may take one or more of the following actions: alter a grade or assign a grade of "F" in the assignment, examination, or the course and/or recommend an additional sanction up to and including suspension and/or dismissal from the course. The action taken by the faculty member should be reported to their Department Chair/Director and the Instructional Office. The student so affected shall have the right of appeal through the Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs.

Second Level Resolution

If a second offense of academic misconduct occurs during the student's academic career, this WILL result in administrative withdrawal from the institution for a period of one academic year. The student so affected shall have the right of appeal through the Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs.

Third Level Resolution

After one academic year the affected student may re-enroll with the understanding if a violation of the Academic Code of Conduct occurs during their tenure at Cowley College the result will be permanent expulsion from the institution with no right of appeal.

Disability Services Program:

Cowley College, in recognition of state and federal laws, will accommodate a student with a documented disability. If you have a disability which may impact your work in this class and for which you require accommodations, please contact Mark A. Richardson, the Disability Services Coordinator, located in the Nelson Student Center Room 203 in order for arrangements of needed accommodations. Phone number: Main Campus - 620-441-5557 or North Campuses - 316-554-2724.

E-mail: richardson@cowley.edu

Grade Change/Appeal:

If a student is dissatisfied with a course grade issued by an instructor and believes the grade issued is incorrect, the student may use the following appeal procedures:

- The student shall, within one academic semester following issuance of the grade, confer with the instructor and outline the reason(s) the student feels the grade is incorrect.
- The instructor shall advise the student of the grade change-if applicable.
- If the student is not satisfied with the results of the conference, he/she may request a Student Grade Appeal Form in the office of the Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs or the Dean of North Campuses. A review conference shall be held within the semester that the appeal is filed. The Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs, or their designee, the instructor who issued the grade, the Chairperson of the department or the Instructional Director involved or their designee will comprise the committee. The Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs will issue a decision and notify the student in writing within ten (10) days following the review. This decision is final.
